

Come Follow Me

HOMESCHOOL & FAMILY CURRICULUM
GRADES K-3

Week of September 21, 2026
Isaiah 13-14; 22; 24-30; 35

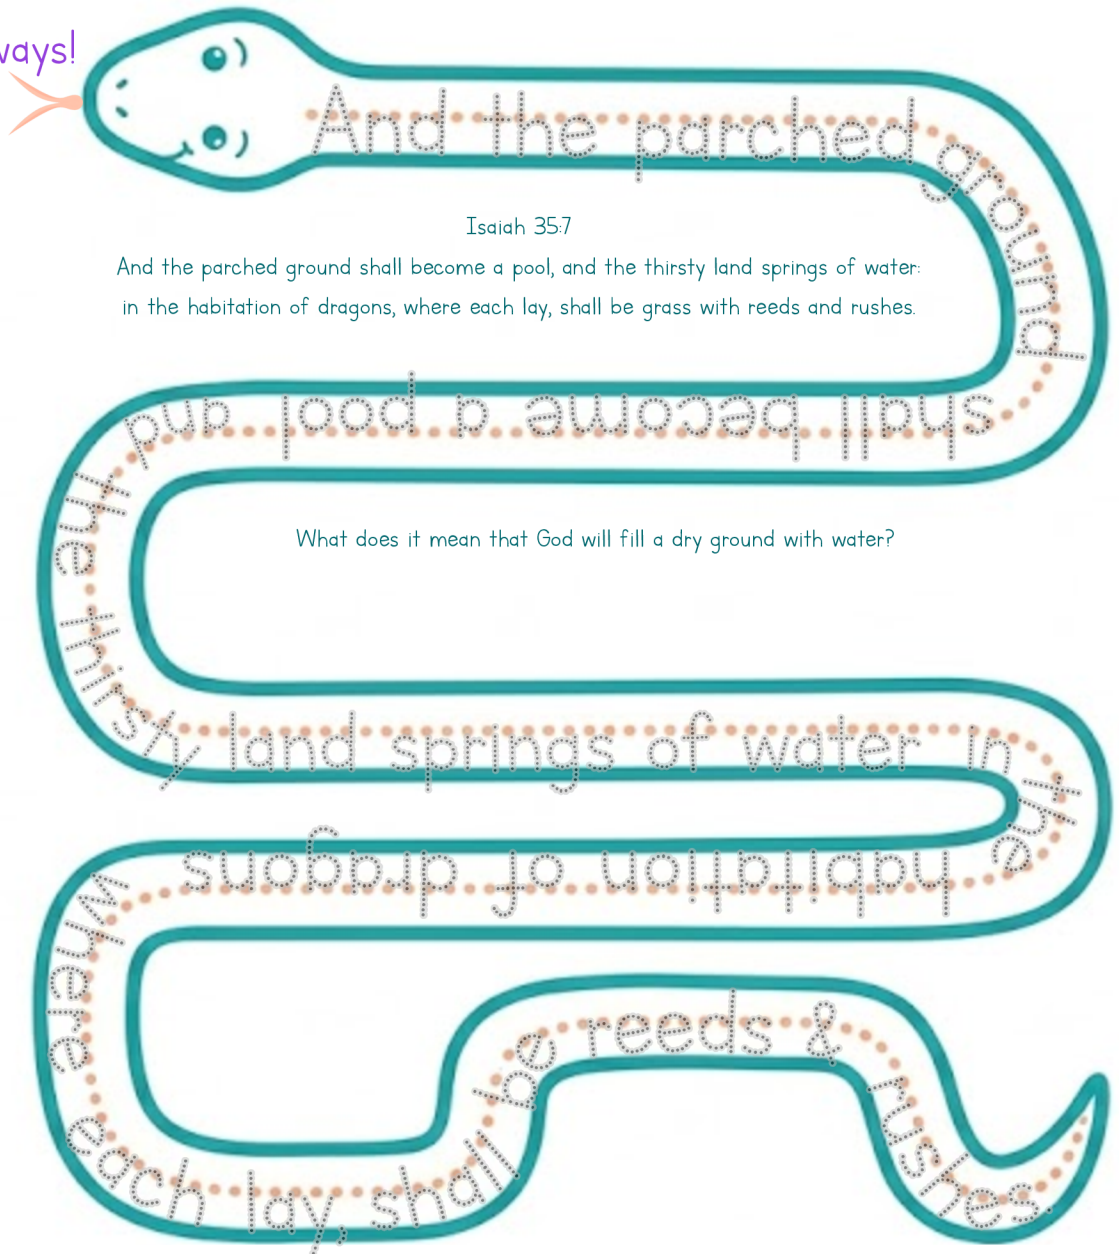

Monday

“A Marvelous Work!”

Turn me sideways!

Did you know Isaiah talks about DRAGONS (other translations have said snake and jackals)? Isaiah warned people to stop making bad choices and listen to God. He also promised that God would help His people and make sad, broken things happy again. We are living in the time when God is doing His “marvelous work,” and we get to be part of it.

Don't let this snake fool you! Carefully copy the verse from Isaiah 35:7 in your best handwriting. You may need to turn the paper to get the job done!

Isaiah 35:7

And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water:
in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

What does it mean that God will fill a dry ground with water?

© Cherie Kahmann

Takeaway: Even when life feels hard, it won't stay that way forever. The scriptures—and people we know—show that God helps His children through tough times and then brings them back to peace and happiness. As you try to follow Him, He will bless you too and let you see His marvelous works.

Tuesday

Jesus Christ can save me from sin and death.

Did you know that we don't just have to BELIEVE in Christ, we can KNOW that he truly lived, and then died, and was resurrected? There are many stories and testimonies of people that have seen, walked with, and been with the Savior after He died. Because He overcame death and sin we have been given the most incredible gift! He did this for us.

Watch “John 20 | Jesus is Resurrected | The Bible” by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Copy the words from Isaiah 25:8-9 in your best handwriting.

He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and he will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice.

Draw a picture here of you comforting someone who is crying.

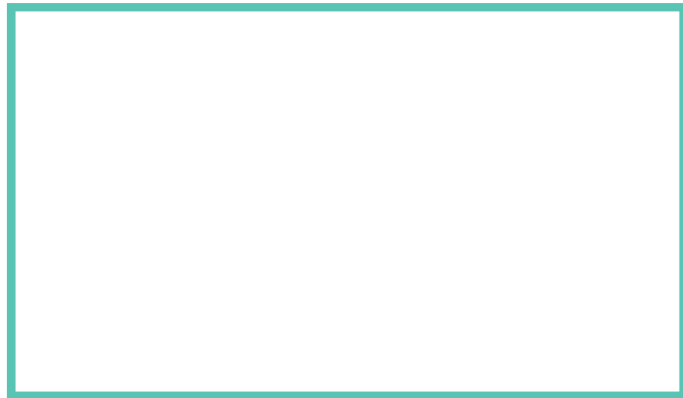

Takeaway: Jesus Christ overcame death and sin so that you could return to live with Him, your family, and your Heavenly Parents. What can you do to show your gratitude? You can witness of Him by treating others kinder, by trying to be your best self each day, and by remembering Him in your prayers each night.

Wednesday Jesus gives me “refuge from the storm.”

Have you ever seen a really big thunderstorm or been in a storm that felt scary? Sometimes life feels like a storm too. Some kids don't have safe homes, enough food, or even shoes to protect their little feet. Jesus understands every hard thing they face, and He loves them deeply—He even went through hard times Himself when He lived on Earth. The Lord knows that we can help each other and he said, “When you do it for someone in need, you are also doing it for me.” (paraphrased from Matthew 25:40).

Isaiah spoke about the Savior in Isaiah 25:4: “For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.”

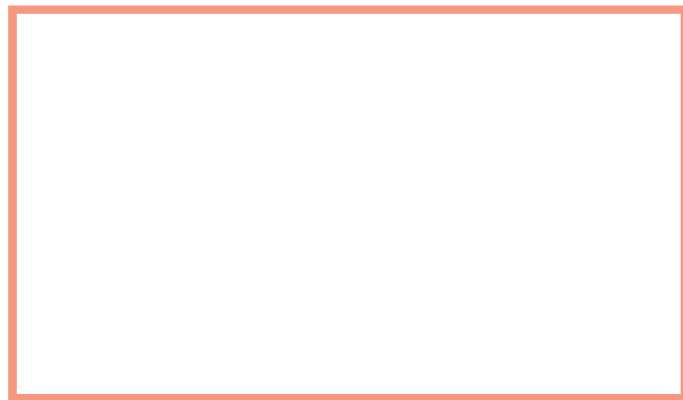

The following story tells about a time when Christ saved His friends from a storm. Read the story and draw an illustration to go with each part.

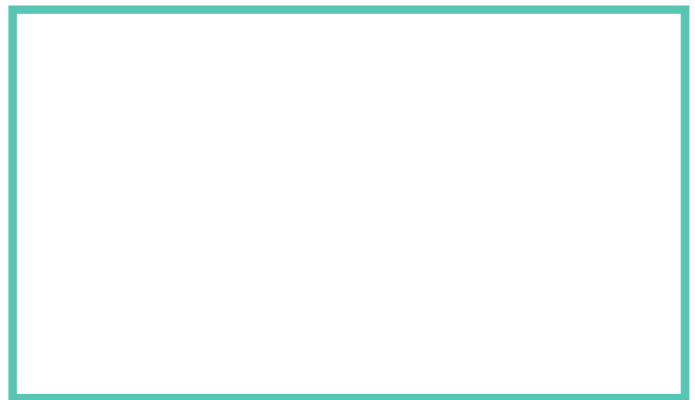

One day Jesus told his friends that they were going across the sea in a boat.

That night the wind began to blow and a big scary storm came! The boat was rocking back and forth and they were scared.

Jesus was asleep through the whole storm! One of His friends woke Him and said, “Don't you care that we will die?”

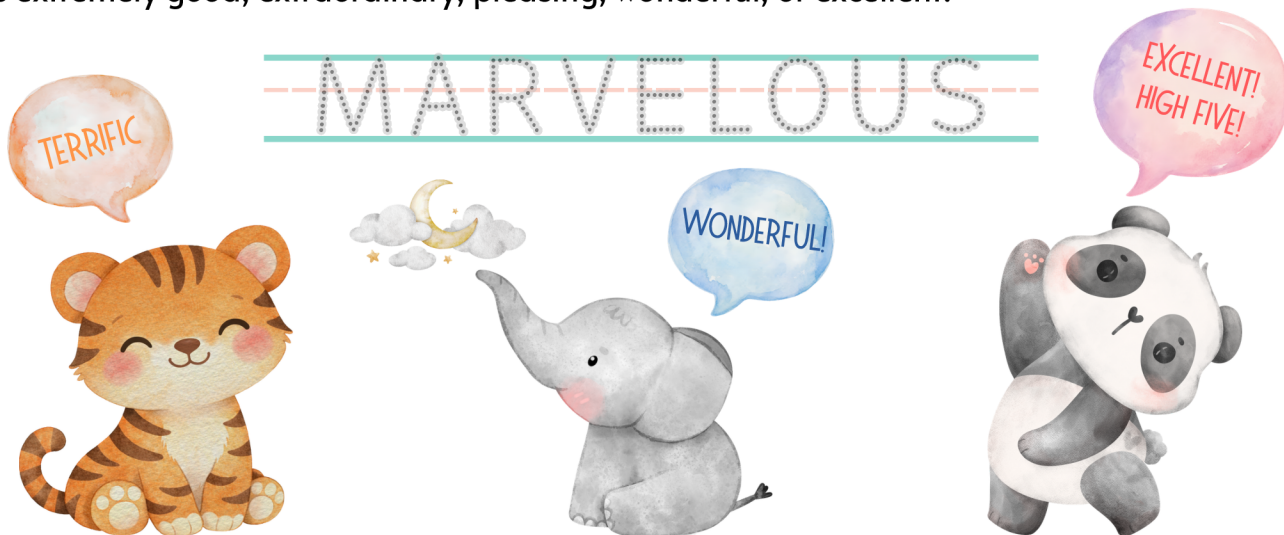

Jesus stood and said, “Be still!” The wind stopped and everything was still. His friends were really impressed and grateful.

Takeaway: Christ can help calm the storm in our lives. We can feel His love and peace when we pray to him and when we help others around us. This week look for a really special opportunity to serve. Maybe you'll notice some garbage that needs to be cleaned up, a friend that needs a hug, or a sibling who is having a bad day and needs some kindness.

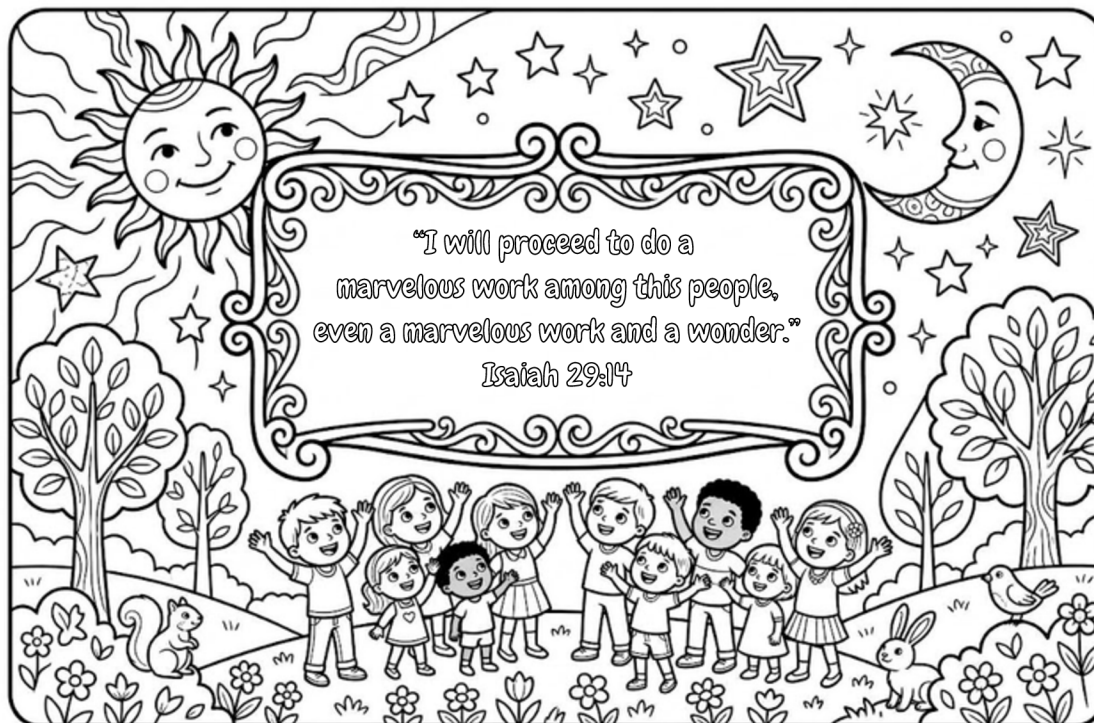

Thursday

The Restoration of the gospel is a “marvellous work.”

Isaiah loved to use big fancy words when he wrote. One of these words is ‘marvelous’. This word means extremely good, extraordinary, pleasing, wonderful, or excellent.

Now that you know what ‘marvellous’ means put it in your own sentence:

Isaiah used ‘marvelous’ to describe the works of God. Isaiah 29: 14 says: “Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.”

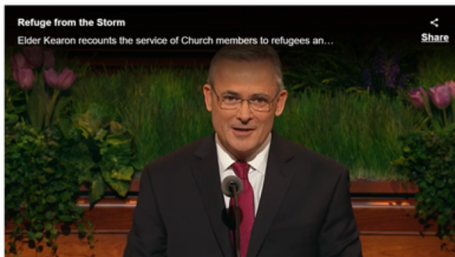

Takeaway: All the works of God truly are marvelous, including the creation of YOU! You being you is a marvelous thing! Your ideas, your creativity, your works, they are all part of this marvelous person and make you special.

Friday

Learning and connecting the gospel to me

As a family sing “Because” in the new hymn selection and choose one or more of the following:

- Watch one of these videos on service, then plan a service project that is age appropriate:
 - “How Can We Serve Others” by KidSpring Children's Ministry on YouTube
 - “Serving in the Savior's Way” by Gospel for Kids on YouTube.
 - “I'm So Little, What Can I Do? | A Story About Serving Others” By Latter Day Kids on YouTube
- Watch “A Marvelous Work and a Wonder” on LDS Video - Gospel Library on YouTube
- Watch “The Prophet Isaiah | Bible Stories for Kids | Come Follow Me” on Thumb Follow Me on YouTube
- Choose an article out of the Friend Magazine and read it together. “The Worry Box” from September 2024, and “I Will See My Brother Again” from April 2021 are great options.
- Build a fort and share your testimony about how Christ can be our shelter in a storm. Leave the fort up all day for kids to read and play in. Take a picture and share it with the Come Follow Me for Homeschoolers Group!
- Listen to “Refuge in the Storm” by Elder Kearon (April 2016)

Come Follow Me

HOMESCHOOL & FAMILY CURRICULUM
GRADES 4-8

Week of August 10, 2026

Job 1-3; 21-24; 28-40; 42

Monday

The Lord can restore what is lost or broken.

Did you know Isaiah talks about DRAGONS (other translations have said snakes and jackals)? Prophets are asked by God to warn people about what happens when they choose sin. In the Old Testament, this sometimes meant telling powerful kings that they needed to repent, which was dangerous—but Isaiah was brave and spoke boldly to Israel, Judah, and other nations. Even though the things he warned about eventually happened, Isaiah also promised that God would one day bring healing and hope, turning dry places into pools of water and doing a “marvelous work” to restore His people. Isaiah didn’t live to see this happen, but we are seeing it now—and we get to be part of it.

Carefully copy the verse from Isaiah 35:7 in your best handwriting

“And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes.”

Takeaway: Isaiah teaches us that even when life feels hard or confusing, God is still working to help us grow and become stronger. If we listen to Him, stay brave, and keep trying to do what’s right, He can turn our “dry places” into something good again.

Tuesday

Jesus Christ is the promised Messiah.

Did you know that we don't just have to BELIEVE in Christ, we can KNOW that he truly lived, and then died, and was resurrected? There are many stories and testimonies of people that have seen, walked with, and been with the Savior after He died. Because He overcame death and sin we have been given the most incredible gift! He did this for us.

Watch "John 20 | Jesus is Resurrected | The Bible" by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Copy the words from Isaiah 25:8-9 in your best handwriting.

He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all
faces; and he will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice.

Read about some Messianic prophecies from Isaiah and fill in the blanks:

Isaiah 22:2

And the _____ of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall
_____, and none shall _____; and he shall _____, and none shall
_____.

Isaiah 22:3

And I will fasten him as a _____ in a sure place; and he shall be for a _____ throne to his father's _____.

Takeaway: What did Jesus do for you? He died for YOU! He also overcame death and sin so that you could return to live with Him, your family, and your Heavenly Parents. What can you do to show your gratitude? You can witness of Him by treating others kinder, by trying to be your best self each day, learning about Him, and remembering Him in your prayers each night.

Wednesday

Turning away from the Lord brings spiritual danger.

Let's start today "brainSTORMING" things that kids your age might be facing that feel like storms (scary, stressful, confusing) in the first column. In the second column write down shelters from your parents, God, society, or church leaders that keep you safe and strong.

 STORMS faced by kids my age	SHELTERS what keeps us safe or strong
Example: online dangers	Example: electronic boundaries and rules

Storms in life aren't just weather - they can be scary experiences, pressures, or challenges. Isaiah warned people about storms, but he also promised that God would help them and bring hope. God does the same for us today. Think of some of the stories we heard: Joseph thrown into Egypt and the Lord using Joseph to save his family and Egypt, Moses leading the people to the promised land, Sarah and Abraham, Queen Esther. All of these stories point to the truth: God will help guide His people when they turn their hearts to Him.

Isaiah loved using comparisons, but not always the kind we use today. If you said, "Bruh, that fit is dripping." or "Yo, the player is GOAT-ED." or "These kicks are sus." it could be guaranteed that Isaiah would standing there...absolutely confused.

Let's take a look at some of the ways the GOAT of all scripture writing linguistically shared comparisons:

To warn about the consequences of turning away from the Lord, Isaiah used some memorable comparisons. As you study them, ask yourself how turning away from the Lord is like:

Scripture	Comparison	What did Isaiah mean?
Isaiah 24:1-5	A sad, empty earth
Isaiah 28:7-8	Drunkenness
Isaiah 29:7-10	Hunger & thirst
Isaiah 30:13-14	A broken wall/vessel

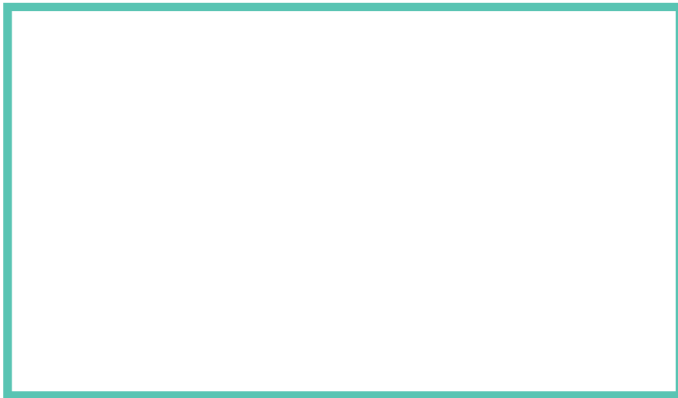

Thursday

The Lord can restore what is lost or broken.

The scriptures and the stories we learn tell us a pattern about man and God. So many stories in scriptures are about creation, fall, then redemption. The Lord tells us in many ways that HE can save us and He is ALWAYS looking for ways to save us.

From the CFM Manual: "Have you ever lost something that you thought you would never find again? Or maybe something broke, and you worried that it could never be repaired. When we turn away from the Lord, Satan wants us to think that we can never return or be healed. However, Isaiah described some of the marvelous things the Lord will do to help us return to Him."

Read the scriptures from Isaiah Chapter 35 and draw an illustration in the box or write a description to go along with the scripture. You can choose a real life example, demonstrate the text, or find a scripture story that complements the verse.

Isaiah 35:3

Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

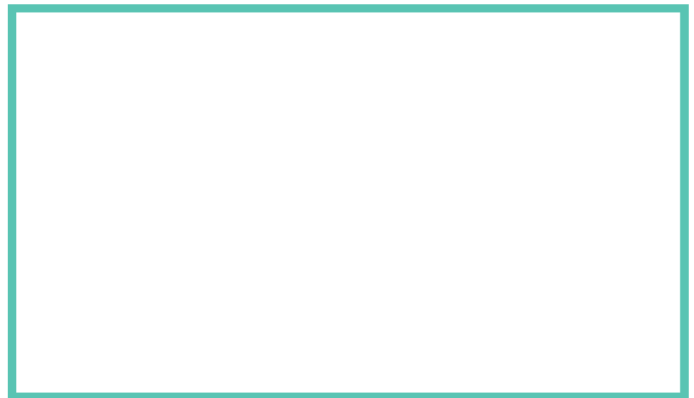

Isaiah 35:4

Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you.

Isaiah 35:5

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

Isaiah 35:6

Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

As a family sing “Because” in the new hymn selection and choose one or more of the following:

- Build a fort and climb in with your family or a notebook to share your testimony about how Christ can be our shelter in a storm. Leave the fort up all day to read and play in. Take a picture and share it with the Come Follow Me for Homeschoolers Group! This would be a fun FHE also.
- Watch one of these videos on service, then plan a service project that is age appropriate:
 - “Serving Others” by Sermons by Teens for Teens on YouTube
 - “Refuge From the Storm” by Elder Kearon on YouTube
 - “Teen Volunteers on Volunteering” by MSI Chicago Youth on YouTube
 - “Ripple (Award Winning)- Kindness and good deeds will come back to you” by Daniel Yam on YouTube
 - “Best Advertisement ever-Winner of Best Ad 2014” (Multiple versions online, it’s a story of how one man’s choices make the world a better place)
- “Inspiring Short: Somebody to Stand By You by Jeffrey R. Holland” on BYU Speeches on YouTube
- Watch “The Prophet Isaiah | Bible Stories for Kids | Come Follow Me” on Thumb Follow Me on YouTube
- “Ministering Angels - Jeffrey R. Holland” by DesertCinema on YouTube
- “Stay in the Boat - Jeffrey R. Holland” by Church News on YouTube
- Choose an article out of the Liahona Magazine or For the Strength of Youth and read it.
- Watch “A Marvelous Work and a Wonder” on LDS Video - Gospel Library on YouTube
- Watch “The Prophet Isaiah | Bible Stories for Kids | Come Follow Me” on Thumb Follow Me on YouTube
- Read the section called “Scripture Helps” from Come Follow Me for this week
- Listen to Sister Amy A. Wright’s message “Christ Heals That Which Is Broken” April 2022, General Conference.
- Listen to Elder Gerrit W. Gong’s message “All Nations, Kindreds, and Tongues” October 2020, General Conference.