

Come follow Me

HOMESCHOOL & FAMILY CURRICULUM
GRADES K-3

Week of November 2nd, 2026
Ezekiel 1–3; 33–34; 36–37; 47

Monday "A New Spirit Will I Put within You"

Ezekiel was one of God's prophets. He lived far from his home because he and many Israelites had been taken to Babylon. Ezekiel missed God's temple in Jerusalem.

One day, God gave Ezekiel a special vision. Ezekiel saw God's glory even though he was far away from Jerusalem. This showed that God was still with His people.

The people had made many wrong choices, and Jerusalem had become very wicked. But God did not give up on His people. He promised that if they listened to Him, He would help them change. God promised to give them a "new heart" and bring hope for the future.

Copy the scripture from Ezekial 36:26 in your best handwriting. (Parent note: The scripture was slightly changed at the end for comprehension and context for younger kids.)

© Cherie Kahmann

A new heart also will I give you,
and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of you, and I will give you a soft heart."

Takeaway: We learn from Ezekial that God can find us where we are! God is always watching out for us and taking care of us. He can help us when our hearts need to change and we need to grow closer to Him.

Tuesday Prophets are like watchmen who warn us of danger.

Below are some important jobs people do. Can you describe why each one is important?

Air Traffic Controller:

Lighthouse Keeper:

Lifeguard:

All of these people watch out for dangers. The Air Traffic Controller makes sure all the planes can safely take off and land. The Lighthouse Keeper helps keep ships from crashing into rocks they can't see at night. A lifeguard can watch the water for trouble and also for those drowning.

In Bible times, a watchman stood on a city wall or tower. He watched for danger and warned the people so they could be safe. God told Ezekiel to be like a watchman. Ezekiel's job was to listen to God, the messages He gave him as the prophet, and warn people when they were making wrong choices. Copy the words from Ezekial 3:17.

© Cherie Kahmann

I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth,
and give them warning from me.

Takeaway: God calls our prophets to be watchmen and warn us of danger. God is the best watchman of all. He sees what we can not see and warns us through the prophets. We should listen carefully to God's word and share it with others so they are safe also.

Wednesday

The Bible and the Book of Mormon help "gather" us to Jesus Christ.

Read Ezekial 37: 15-23 with a parent.

God gave Ezekiel a special object lesson. He told him to take two sticks. One stick represented Judah and the other represented Joseph (Ephraim). God told Ezekiel to join the two sticks together in his hand. The two sticks becoming one showed that God would bring His people back together. They would not be divided anymore.

God promised to gather His people from many places and bring them home. He would help them turn back to Him. They would be His people, and He would be their God.

© Cherie Kahmann

Holy Bible

In the box:
Draw a stick and write the name "Judah" on it.

Book of Mormon

In the box:
Draw a stick and write the name "Joseph" on it.

Fill in the Blank:

Word Bank:

one God people sticks

Ezekiel used two _____.

God made the two sticks become _____.

God promised to gather His _____.

"I will be their _____."

Takeaway: Heavenly Father can bring people back together when they have been separated. He wants to find us and bring us all back to Him! Some ways God does this is through missionary work, ministering, prophets, and through the Holy Ghost inspiring people to find Him. How can YOU help gather Israel?

Thursday

Our hearts and families can find healing in the house of the Lord.

Ezekiel saw a wonderful vision of a temple. Water flowed out from the temple and became a river. On YouTube watch "Day 200 Ezekiel Sees a Life Giving River" by Bible Stories for the Young.

As the river flowed, it brought life wherever it went. It flowed into the Dead Sea, which was so salty that plants and fish could not live there. But when the water from the temple reached the sea, everything changed. Fish began to live there, and trees grew along the riverbanks.

The trees produced fruit and their leaves were used for healing. This vision showed that God's blessings bring life, healing, and hope. Read Ezekial 47:1-12. In the box draw the vision Ezekial had, check off the words as you include them in the picture.

Checklist:

- ☐ River
- ☐ Trees
- ☐ Temple door
- ☐ Fish

© Cherie Kahmann

Takeaway: The river turned dead places into living places. What are some ways God's word help people today? Check all the ones that are true:

- ☐ Gives hope
- ☐ Teaches truth
- ☐ Helps people change
- ☐ Brings comfort
- ☐ Strengthens faith
- ☐ Brings them to Christ

God can bring life to places that seem empty, broken, or hopeless. Just as the river healed the Dead Sea, God's power can bring spiritual growth, healing, and blessings to our lives.

Friday

The Lord invites me to feed His sheep.

God spoke to Ezekiel and compared leaders to shepherds. A shepherd takes care of sheep by feeding them, protecting them, and helping them when they are hurt or lost.

In Ezekiel 34, God was unhappy with leaders who cared more about themselves than about the people. God promised that He would be the Good Shepherd. He would look for His lost sheep, bring them back, feed them, and keep them safe. This teaches us that good leaders care about others and help them follow God.

Read the verses from Ezekiel 34 and find the image that matches them. Draw a line from the verse to the matching picture.

verse 11

For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

verse 12

As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

verse 14

I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be

verse 16

I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick

verse 23

And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them. And I the Lord will be their God.

verse 27

And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord

© Cherie Kahmann

Takeaway: Godly leaders and parents are both watchmen and shepherds. They watch for danger, teach truth, serve others, and help people grow closer to God. Jesus is the perfect example because He seeks the lost, heals the hurting, and lovingly guides His sheep.

Come follow Me

HOMESCHOOL CURRICULUM
GRADES 4–8

Week of November 2nd, 2026
Ezekiel 1–3; 33–34; 36–37; 47

Monday "A New Spirit Will I Put within You"

Ezekiel was a prophet who lived during a difficult time in Israel's history. He and many other Israelites had been taken captive and were living in Babylon. Before the exile, Ezekiel would have served as a priest in the temple at Jerusalem.

While living among the captives, Ezekiel received a powerful vision of God's glory. This was important because it showed that God's presence was not limited to the temple in Jerusalem. The people in Jerusalem had become very sinful and rebellious, and God's presence had departed because of their wickedness.

Even though Israel had turned away from God, Ezekiel's message was filled with hope. God promised that if the people would listen to His word, they could be spiritually restored. He promised to replace their "stony heart" with a "new heart," meaning He would help them become more willing to follow Him. Ezekiel also prophesied about a future time when God would again dwell among His people and establish a holy city where "The Lord is there."

Copy the scripture from Ezekial 36:26 in your best handwriting. Find it in your scriptures and carefully mark it there also using a colored pencil.

© Cherie Kahmann

A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh."

Takeaway: Ezekial's story shows that God can find us where we are. God's presence is not limited by location. Even when people have made mistakes, God offers forgiveness, change, and hope to those who listen to His word.

Tuesday The Watchman on the Tower

In Ezekiel 3, God appointed Ezekiel as a watchman for Israel. A watchman had the responsibility to stay alert, watch for danger, and give warnings. If he saw danger and failed to warn the people, he was accountable. God used this image to teach Ezekiel that he must faithfully deliver God's messages.

On YouTube, on the Scripture Central channel, watch "The Watchmen on the Tower in Ezekiel."

In Ezekiel 34, God rebuked Israel's leaders because they acted like selfish shepherds. Instead of caring for the people, they neglected them. God said: "The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick" (Ezekiel 34:4). God then promised that He Himself would seek His sheep, gather them, feed them in good pasture, heal the injured, and protect them from harm.

These chapters teach that leadership is not about power. It is about serving, protecting, teaching, and caring for others. God's model of leadership is shown in the care of a faithful shepherd and a watchman on a tower.

Copy the scripture from Ezekiel 3:17. Then answer the questions below.

I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: there fore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

What is the role of a watchman? _____

_____

What is the role of a shepherd? _____

_____

Takeaway: God calls our prophets to be watchmen and warn us of danger. God is the best watchman of all. He sees what we can not see and warns us through the prophets. We should listen carefully to God's word and share it with others. When we heed the warnings of the prophets we are protected from danger, when we

Wednesday

The Lord is gathering His people and giving them new life.

Read Ezekial 37: 15-23.

During Ezekiel's time, the nation of Israel had long been divided into two kingdoms. God instructed Ezekiel to take two sticks and write names on them. One represented Judah, and the other represented Joseph (Ephraim). When Ezekiel joined the sticks together, it symbolized God's promise to reunite His scattered people into one nation again. God said they would no longer be divided into two kingdoms.

The prophecy was about more than political unity. God also promised spiritual restoration. The people would turn away from idols and sinful practices. God would cleanse them, restore them, and renew His covenant relationship with them.

Read Ezekiel 37:21-23 again. What three promises does God make:

1.

2.

3.

The two sticks represented which two groups of people (write the names on the two sticks):

The stick of Judah can represent the Bible (since much of the Bible was written by Judah's descendants), and the stick of Joseph can represent the Book of Mormon (since Lehi's family were descendants of Joseph of Egypt).

© Cherie Kahmann

Vocabulary Match

Match the word to it's meaning:

- Gather _____ A. To forgive and make clean
- Idol _____ B. To bring together
- Cleanse _____ C. A false god
- Transgression _____ D. Sin or disobedience

Takeaway: Heavenly Father can bring people back together when they have been separated. God can restore broken relationships and reunite his people. He wants to find us and bring us all back to Him! Some ways God does this is through missionary work, ministering, prophets, and through the Holy Ghost inspiring people to find Him. How can YOU help gather Israel?

Thursday I can find spiritual healing in the house of the Lord.

In Ezekiel's vision, water flowed out from the temple and gradually became deeper and wider until it formed a great river. This river flowed into the Dead Sea, a body of water unable to support most life because of its extreme saltiness.

When the river reached the Dead Sea, the water was healed. Fish became abundant, trees grew along the river, fruit appeared every month, and the leaves were used for healing.

This vision illustrates how God's power brings spiritual life and restoration. What was once barren became fruitful. What was once dead became alive. The river symbolizes the blessings that flow from God and bring healing to His people.

Read Ezekiel 47:1-12 and answer the questions:

1. Where did the river begin?

2. What happened to the Dead Sea when the river flowed into it?

3. What lived in the river?

4. What grew on it's banks?

5. What do you think this dream reprepents?

Illustrate the dream in the box below

Watch this video on this week's Come Follow Me Page

And the River Will Grow

© Cherie Kahmann

Takeaway: God can bring life to places that seem empty, broken, or hopeless. Just as the river healed the Dead Sea, God's power can bring spiritual growth, healing, and blessing to our lives. It reminds us to never give up on the people we love, and ourselves, because God is a God of healing and miracles.

Friday The Lord invites me to feed His sheep.

God spoke to Ezekiel and compared leaders to shepherds. A shepherd takes care of sheep by feeding them, protecting them, and helping them when they are hurt or lost.

In Ezekiel 34, God was unhappy with leaders who cared more about themselves than about the people. God promised that He would be the Good Shepherd. He would look for His lost sheep, bring them back, feed them, and keep them safe. This teaches us that good leaders care about others and help them follow God.

Read the verses from Ezekiel 34 and find the image that matches them. Draw a line from the verse to the matching picture.

verse 11

For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

verse 12

As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

verse 14

I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be

verse 16

I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick

verse 23

And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them. And I the Lord will be their God.

verse 27

And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord

© Cherie Kahmann

Takeaway: Godly leaders and parents are both watchmen and shepherds. They watch for danger, teach truth, serve others, and help people grow closer to God. Jesus is the perfect example because He seeks the lost, heals the hurting, and lovingly guides His sheep.